Prayer to St Michael, said at the end of Masses. St Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

An OPPORTUNITY has arisen. Are you 18-35 Could you be a Youth Ambassador?

The diocese are looking for two or three Youth Ambassadors, aged 18-35, from every parish in the diocese to help promote events in parishes and to support communications between parishes, young people and the diocese.

No experience necessary, but this is a vital role with minimal commitment.

Requirements are that you should be active in their faith and local parish, and adept in varying forms of correspondence and a good communicator. DBS checks required. Inform Father George and the office if you are interested.

This week we also remember two of the 40 Martyrs of England and Wales.

St John Wall, born in Lancashire, 1620. The son of wealthy and staunch Lancashire Catholics, he was sent when very young to Douai College. was made priest, 3 December, 1645, and sent to the Mission 1656, when he returned to the Mission, and for twenty years laboured zealously in Worcestershire. He was apprehended, December, 1678, at Rushock Court near Bromsgrove, & was hung, drawn & quartered 22 August 1679.

John Kemble born 1599 and died a martyr and hanged, drawn and quartered as part of the Titus Oates plot in 1679. He was canonised in 1970. One of Kemble's hands is still preserved at St Francis Xavier Church in Hereford and his body is in St Mary's graveyard Welsh newton.

Can you please consider supporting this young man? We have known Jasdeep since he was born. At the age of 21 he sustained a spinal injury which left him a tetraplegic and confined to a wheelchair. Over the last 10 years he has been befriended by Cardinal Vincent Nichols.

Jasdeep embraces the Catholic faith which has increased due to the level of support given by His Eminence. As a result of seeing "The Way" Jasdeep wanted to fund raise for one of the Cardinal's favourite charities which is Bakhita House UK. Please help Jas push 100km along the Portuguese Camino for Caritas Bakhita House UK and St Jude Children's Research Hospital USA. Caritas Bakhita House was set up to provide women escaping human trafficking with the safety and support to allow them to begin the recovery process.
