25th September 2017 : St. Raphael is mentioned by name in the Old Testament Book of Tobit. Disguised as a human being, Raphael calls himself "Azarias the son of the great Ananias"

and he travels alongside Tobit's son, Tobiah. In some works of art, he is depicted as walking alongside the young Tobit, holding his hand and keeping him safe. However, once Raphael returns from his journey with Tobiah, he declares to the father Tobit that he was sent by the Lord to heal his blindness and deliver Sarah, Tobiah's future wife, from a demon. It is then that his true healing powers are revealed and he makes himself known as "the angel Raphael, who stands before the Lord" (Tobit 12:15). Raphael guided Tobiah and taught him how to enter safely the marriage with Sarah. He drove out the evil spirit from Sarah and by asking Tobias to make a healing balm from fish paste, restored Tobit's vision, allowing him to see the light of heaven. He then enabled Tobit to receive many good things from God through his intercession. In the New Testament, only the archangels Gabriel and Michael are mentioned by name. However, in the Gospel of John there is the story of the man who had had an illness for thirty-eight years waiting at the Pool of Bethesda, where many ill people rested, until the water moved (John 5: 1-47). There we are told "at intervals, the angel of the Lord came down into the pool, and the water was disturbed, and the first person to enter the water after this disturbance was cured of any ailment he suffered from" (John 5: 4). Because of his healing powers, this angel has often been thought to be St. Raphael, the Archangel.

St. Raphael is the patron saint of travellers, the blind, bodily illnesses, happy meetings, nurses, physicians and medical workers. He is often pictured holding a staff and either holding or standing on a fish.

40 Days for Life : As many of you will know, 2017 marks 50 years since abortion was made legal in the UK, which has seen the devastating loss of 9.0 million unborn human lives. For 50 years this unjust destruction of human life has been taking place on our doorsteps and is being funded by our taxes. In the year 2007, an international organisation called 40 Days for Life was formed to help bring about an end to abortion through the methods of prayer, sacrifice and street witness. Due to their campaigns, it is estimated that in the past 10 years, 13,305 unborn children have been spared from the evil of abortion alongside the closure of many abortion facilities throughout the world. And so this year, a 40 Days for Life campaign will be running in Portsmouth from 27th September until 5th of November – and you are cordially invited to support this battle for life work with your prayers and to get involved.
