Hospital: What if I am taken into hospital as an emergency? Remember to let your relatives know your wishes concerning visits from a chaplain if you are taken into hospital unexpectedly. They can then notify the Chaplaincy Department if that happens. Tell the nursing staff on the ward know that you are Catholic and would like a visit from the chaplain. Please also let Fr. Innaiah know you are in hospital.

Thank you very much: Thank you all my people for your generosity and kindness at Christmas and New Year 2018. Thank you for your Generous Christmas offerings, Gifts and Cards. I hope you had great Christmas and I wish you Happy and Healthy New Year 2018.

Thank you: It is my Joy to thank all of you who worked so hard to make Christmas celebrations such a beautiful celebration. Deacon Stephen Short at Lyndhurst and those who actively participated in the celebrations, those who organised various things at Christmas, flower arrangers, those who decorated our churches, those who kept our churches clean and tidy regularly and everyone. My Humble Thanks to every one of you. Have a Blessed and Happy New Year 2018

Science -or - Religion? Symposium: Next year, we are planning a big diocesan Symposium to be held in Winchester called "Science - or - Religion?" I have invited two key speakers: Professor Brian Cox, professor of physics from the University of Manchester and BBC broadcaster, and Dr Andrew Pinsent from the Oxford University Ian Ramsey Centre for Science and Religion. In addition there will be optional workshops for participants to join in. The symposium will take place on Sat 3rd Nov 2018, 10am to 4pm. The Symposium will end with a panel responding to questions from the audience. More details soon but for now, please mark the date in your diary!. Bishop Philip
