REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

Direct confrontation often causes more harm than good. Saul was aggressively hunting down the followers of Jesus. That aggressive energy was still driving him when, only days after his dramatic conversion, he begins challenging his former co-religionists with his new-found faith "Jesus is the Son of God" (Acts 9:20). Today's reading describes him "preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord". Having raised a proverbial hornet's nest Paul and his companions began to suffer the unintended consequences of his zeal. His minders took the wise and prudent decision to quietly spirit him away. Today's extract finishes with: "The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit". How we say something has a greater effect than what we say. Are we trying to share a truth or insight we have come to realise or are we just trying to prove ourselves "right" and the other person "wrong"? Before we presume to confront or challenge or dialogue it would be good to become aware of the energies that are driving us. Are they angry and aggressive or peaceful and benevolent?

We are often prone to anxiety. And God can sometimes be sensed, experienced or thought of as One who is overwhelming and all-demanding. In contrast we experience ourselves as weak and sinful and never good or holy enough. If we are not careful our negative imaginings and anxieties can run away with us. In our second reading today, John recognises the vulnerability of our consciences which can "raise accusations against us". We need to "quieten our consciences" to preserve the peace Christ gives us and even our mental health! The way to do this is to honestly assess the reality of our practical compassion and love. Are we really trying to love and care for one another according to our capacity and means? If yes, we can be at peace. If no, we need to repent.

"I am the Vine and you are the branches". The life, beauty and goodness of God is manifest in everything. We human beings can begin to appreciate these qualities in the experience of our relationships. It is in our relationships that God's life, beauty and goodness are freely given and received as love. The fullness of God's self-giving can only be received in relationships of love and freedom. One has to be in it to win it, as the popular saying goes! One has to be in the relationship to receive the blessings of the relationship. "Remain in me", Jesus says, "as I remain in you". We are part of the Divine mystery. As Paul wrote in 2 Timothy 2:13: we may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful for he cannot disown his own self. And it is only in this Divine relationship that we can "bear fruit". This is because the fruit is none other than the personal goodness of God given to us and flowing through us as pure gift. As Paul wrote in Galatians 5:22: the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. By keeping the great commandment, love on another as I have loved you, we will bear much fruit. (DMA).

THANK YOU: from Mrs Allies, Headteacher Our Lady & St Joseph school, to all those parishioners who have volunteered to help children read. We have had a marvellous response. Thank you.

HEALTH & SAFETY: Thank you to all our Fire Wardens who were quick to respond to the fire alarm last Sunday. The Diocese asks us to have a fire drill at least once a year. The Fire Wardens are easily identifiable as they wear yellow Hi-Viz jackets. The lead Fire Warden wears an orange Hi Viz jacket. It is his/her job to allocate areas of the building to each Fire Warden, to check the building is empty after the evacuation and to contact/liaise with the fire brigade &/or police. Their job is to get you out of the building to the muster point as quickly and safely as possible. Please follow their instructions as it could save your life one day. The Diocese says: The purpose of a fire drill is to ensure the efficient and safe exit of the building in case of emergency. Proper drills ensure an orderly exit under control and prevent panic. They must be taken seriously. The law defines that the Responsible Person (in this case the parish priest) must carry out a risk assessment with particular attention to any hazards to the safety of persons. The Responsible person has the legal responsibility for planning and implementing fire precautions implemented by the risk assessment. This should include evacuation planning and other measures. Some of this work can be delegated to one or more competent persons.'

IMPORTANT - CALLING ALL READERS: If you are a reader or would like to be a reader, this is for you. Even for those who have been reading a while there is always something to learn and share with others. Please support this.
