Bishop Philip writes...

This year's new clergy appointments take effect on 8th September 2018, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I would like to express immense gratitude to the priests who are moving for all their hard work for the Lord in their current appointments, and to thank them for agreeing to take on the new assignments. I have found it deeply moving to receive the humble obedience and joyful willingness of these priests. Moving from one appointment and then settling into another is about the hardest thing we do as secular priests. It can also be challenging for our Deacons and for our parishioners. I pray earnestly that the Lord, Who I am convinced, has been guiding this whole process, will grant us all the strengthening and refreshing grace we need.
