VOCATIONS

Our Seminarian to keep in your prayers this month is Matthew King, Matthew is in his 5th year of Formation at the Venerable English College, Rome. His home parish was 'Our Lady Star of the Sea', Amanzimtoti, South Africa! Although his links to Portsmouth parishes include St Edmunds, Southampton and St John the Baptist, Andover. Matthew has asked that during April we pray for him: "I'm sure you know that a total gift of self is really, really difficult. I'd ask your prayers that if, by God's will and with His grace, I am ordained a priest that I offer myself completely and eternally." To find out more on vocations visit the New Diocesan Website for Vocations.

Come and join us for the Chrism Mass

I want to invite everyone – clergy, religious and laity – to join me for the Chrism Mass. The Chrism Mass is the special Liturgy in Holy Week at which the Bishop blesses the three Holy Oils used in the Sacraments: The Oil of Catechumens, the Oil of the Blessing of the Sick and the Oil of Chrism. The blessing of the Holy Oils is one of the most ancient ceremonies of the Church and it's always celebrated in the Cathedral with the priests, deacons, religious and lay people of the diocese. This year, the Chrism Mass is on Tuesday 16th April at 11 o'clock in the Cathedral. During it, all the priests make a renewal of their commitment to priestly service

Pope Francis' Intentions April 2019

Doctors and their Collaborators in War Zones

For doctors and their humanitarian collaborators in war zones, who risk their lives to save the lives of others.

Pope's Tweets When we pray, let us recall that we do so with Jesus. Jesus is our courage. Jesus is our security, who in this moment intercedes for us. Through prayer we learn to renounce the idolatry and self-sufficiency of our ego, and to admit we need the Lord and His mercy.
