Pope Francis' Intentions Aug 2019

Families, Schools of Human Growth

That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of true human growth."

Pope's Tweets Let us pray that the Lord will free the victims of human trafficking and help us to respond actively to the cry for help of so many of our brothers and sisters who are deprived of their dignity and freedom

Diocese of Portsmouth VACANCY

Diocesan Property Manager, The Portsmouth Diocesan Trust, a Registered Charity, has an extensive portfolio of property that includes Churches, associated Church buildings, schools, houses, offices, residential and investment property. The Diocese consists of the counties of Hampshire, part of Dorset and Berkshire, South Oxfordshire, the Isle of Wight and the Channel Islands. Considerable travelling will be involved.

The Diocese is seeking to recruit a Diocesan Property Manager who will be a member of the Diocesan Estate Team providing an effective property management and advice service to the Parishes and Schools of the Diocese and protecting the interests of the Portsmouth Diocese. This role will include acquisitions, disposals, leases, ASTs, ensuring statutory compliance, arranging remedial works, managing consultants and contractors for maintenance projects, and other general estate management duties. The role is a challenging opportunity for a self-motivated individual with considerable experience and a relevant property qualification. While a background in estate management is desirable, your experience could be in surveying or property management. Much of your work will require liaison with priests and parish volunteers, so a commitment to the ethos of the Catholic Church, and excellent communication skills are required. Ability to manage own diary and ensure all tasks completed.

Salary £25,000-£35,000 dependant on qualifications and experience.

Due to the nature of our work with schools and vulnerable adults a DBS check will be required.

For informal enquiries please contact Hilary Foley (Director of Estates) 02392 825430

For an application form, job description and Equal Ops Monitoring form please go to the Diocesan website (www.portsmouthdiocese.org.uk). Please return the application and Equal Opportunity Monitoring forms to:

- Victoria Nightingale, HR Manager, Support & Administration Services, St Edmund House, Bishop Crispian Way, Portsmouth, PO1 3QA or via email to: -

VOCATIONS

Our Seminarian to keep in your prayers this month is Ambrose Chou, Ambrose asks that this month, 'Please keep in your prayers all men discerning the priesthood, and for all our priests, for them to feel God's presence and love in every moment of their lives, that they may discern and follow His call, and for God's love to radiate joy in their lives, especially when things get tough.' To find out more about vocations visit www.portsmouthvocations.org.uk. Why not sign up for the Monthly Prayer Vocations Newsletter? See Copy on the noticeboard.

St John Vianney - Patron of Priests

This Sunday, 4th August, we would normally celebrate the Memorial of St. John Vianney, often called the "Curé D'Ars." Please pray for your priests on that day. Please say a prayer for me too as it is the 35th anniversary of my ordination to the sacred priesthood, so for me it is always a special day. St. John Vianney lived from 1786 to 1859. He spent the whole of his priestly life in a tiny village called Ars, near Lyons France, which, bit by bit, through his preaching, his prayer, his holiness, his hard work he completely transformed. He lived an extremely ascetical life: he fasted every day on a piece of dry bread and a boiled potato. He was totally dedicated and worked hard, especially for the young. After saying Mass and the Divine Office, he spent the rest of the day in confessions, people queuing from the night before to see him. The secret of his life, as he so often said, was a deep, personal-passionate love for Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. St. John Vianney was the master of a good phrase. He summed it all up like this: the priesthood is the love of the Heart of Jesus. So please pray for your priests and please pray for vocations to all states of life and ministry in the Church. John Vianney once said: What use would a house be filled with gold, were there no one to open its door? Our prayer today is the one the Cure said when he first arrived in his new parish in Ars: Lord, grant me the conversion of my parish: I am willing to suffer whatever you wish for my entire life. As a priest and bishop, I find that prayer scary, but I know I must somehow make it my own. So please pray for me, as I do for you.
