Pope Francis' Intentions Sept 2019

The Protection of the Oceans

That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans
Pope's Tweets Let us ask for the grace to remember each day that we are not forgotten by God, and that we are His beloved children, unique and irreplaceable. Calling this to mind gives us the strength not to surrender before the adversities of life. Only when we experience God's forgiveness are, we truly reborn. We start again from there, from forgiveness. It is there that we rediscover ourselves: in confessing our sins.

NEW DIOCESAN STUDENTS for the PRIESTHOOD:

Please pray for Ryan Browne, Jack Ryan, Farvin Gonsalves and Ryan Hawkes who begin their studies this September.

VOCATIONS

Our Seminarian to keep in your prayers this month is Ambrose Chou, Ambrose asks that this month, 'Please keep in your prayers all men discerning the priesthood, and for all our priests, for them to feel God's presence and love in every moment of their lives, that they may discern and follow His call, and for God's love to radiate joy in their lives, especially when things get tough.' To find out more about vocations visit www.portsmouthvocations.org.uk. Why not sign up for the Monthly Prayer Vocations Newsletter? See Copy on the noticeboard.

Considering a call to Priesthood?

Bishop Philip will be hosting a Vocation Seeker Barbecue with Evening Prayer, for those men - young and older - who may be considering a vocation to the Priesthood - even if tentatively - on Tuesday 27th August at Bishop's House from 7pm. It will be a friendly & relaxed evening. Our Seminarians will be at the gathering too. Our Diocesan Clergy are invited to bring with them anyone in their Parish who may be interested - but don't forget to book! The BBQ is aimed at those aged 16 to 55 (abiding by normal safeguarding procedures if under 18). Anyone hoping to attend, should get in touch as soon as possible to book a place and if you know anyone in your parish who may like to attend this, please let us know and we can make contact with them:

1st September - World Day of Prayer for Creation

Pope Francis has established 1st September as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, encouraging the Catholic community around the world to pray for our common home. The day is inspired by Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si, which calls on "every person living on this planet" to care for our shared Earth. On this Day of Prayer, let us "reaffirm [our] personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation, as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live." There is a prayer in e-News from our Bishops' Conference that you can say.

PRAYER for those receiving and awaiting

EXAM RESULTS:

Lord God, thank you for guiding me into my final exams. I lay before you all the hopes and fears I have about the outcome. May you place a peace within me now as I rest and await the results. Thank you that I am held safely in your love and that, whatever happens in the future, I can live in your goodness and walk with you always, Amen.

Introducing Dominicards

Sr Carino OP reports on the Dominican Sisters' latest venture... On Thursday 8th August, the Dominican Sisters of St Joseph opened our new online shop, Dominicards, selling saint- and Scripture-themed greetings cards and rosaries. As Dominican Sisters, our life is all about preaching the truth of the Gospel – and words are only one of many ways to do it. Often, we find that appealing to people's love of art and beauty is a very powerful way to share the joy of our Faith. For instance, a greetings card with a quotation from a Psalm is a gentle way of introducing a non-Christian friend to the Bible; or an attractive rosary, given as a gift, can be a kind encouragement to a lapsed relative to give prayer another go. That is why we have opened Dominicards. On the website you will find a range of greetings cards for every occasion and hand-made rosaries. The cards are all designed by the sisters and printed by a local printing company to professional standard on 300gsm card, while the rosaries are knotted by the sisters using colourful and durable nylon twine. We hope that our products will help you and your loved ones to mark occasions such as Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and weddings, especially in an increasingly secular world where it is often difficult to find Christian cards and holy items. The proceeds from Dominicards will go towards supporting our Dominican life of prayer and preaching in the Diocese, and to building a new novitiate wing for our convent. With three young women entering our community this September, and two more already in formation, we have now run out of cells in our enclosure to house new sisters and therefore urgently need to expand our accommodation. We hope that all e-news readers enjoy browsing Dominicards!
