Alive in the Spirit: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday of Easter

Jesus will not leave us alone. He will not make us children of God in Baptism only to leave us "orphans," He assures us in today's Gospel (see Romans 8:14-17).

He asks the Father to give us His Spirit, to dwell with us and keep us united in the life He shares with the Father.

Stella Maris Supporters like you are crucial to Stella Maris's work in so many ways – thank you for all that you do. Whether you pray, donate or volunteer – every single thing helps to make sure seafarers and fishers are welcomed, supported, and cared for. But have you considered helping us by volunteering in your parish for Sea Sunday?

Sea Sunday is vitally important for Stella Maris. Sea Sunday is on 9 July this year and we need volunteers in your parish and in your Diocese more widely. Whether it is volunteering to speak at your church or working with your parish priest to encourage and support him with the Sea Sunday preparation, you will be helping to raise vital support for the people of the sea. We will provide all the materials you need, from an appeal script, to gift aid envelopes and posters. If you, or a friend or family member, would like to find out more about how you can help this Sea Sunday, please contact me at roland.hayes@stellamarismail.org or call me on 07887 893763. Your support will really help to make Sea Sunday bigger and better in your parish - which in turn will benefit more seafarers and fishers.
