This Sunday 18th June, is the Eleventh Sunday of the Year: Commentary by Canon Gerard Flynn: However crowded the room, however buzzy the conversation, however voluble the voices, however high the volume, you will hear one thing, clear as a bell, when chattering in a busy place: should anyone in the throng mention your name it's as if everything goes quiet. You listen. You want to hear what anyone might be saying about you. There is something that only you can do, in the way that you do it. Only you can be you. We are called by name. That call comes from God in our baptism, cutting through, like that voice in the crowded room.

CAFOD: update on the conflict in Sudan: Violent conflict continues in Sudan and thousands of people are running out of food, water, and medicine. Working as part of the Caritas network, your previous donations to CAFOD are enabling our teams to provide practical help to families who have escaped to neighbouring countries, including South Sudan. Please join Pope Francis in praying for peace in Sudan. Find out more on the CAFOD website: <https://cafod.org.uk/news/emergencies-news/sudan-conflict>
