Stella Maris The second collection this Sunday 9th July is for Stella Maris (the Apostleship of the Sea), the Catholic Church's maritime charity. Seafarers lead hard and dangerous lives. This Sea Sunday your gifts and prayers will help seafarers and fishers get the support they need. Stella Maris chaplains and volunteers are working in ports up and down this country, and across the world: but they cannot do it without your support. Parishioners may use their gift aid envelopes or donate online: <https://donate.giveasyoulive.com/campaign/apostleship-of-the-sea-second-collection-2023>.

St Anne's Catholic School Parents can visit us during our Open Mornings (9.00 - 11.00am) Tuesday 11th and Wednesday 12th July 2023. Parents can book a free ticket via Eventbrite (see poster). We ask that parents arrive at 9.00am to hear from our Senior Leadership team and then take a tour or between 9.30am and 10.00am for tours only. Open mornings give parents the opportunity to see the school on a normal working day and talk to their student guides as they tour the school. See notice board for further information. Come and find out about CAFOD's work.

This Sunday 9th July is the Fourteenth Sunday of the Year: Scott Hahn reflects: Jesus is portrayed in today's Gospel as a new and greater Moses. Moses, the meekest man on earth was God's friend. Only he knew God "face to face." And Moses gave Israel the yoke of the Law, through which God first revealed Himself and how we are to live. Jesus too is meek and humble. But He is more than God's friend. He is the Son who alone knows the Father. He is more also than a lawgiver, presenting Himself today as the yoke of a new Law, and as the revealed Wisdom of God.

Vocations Bishop Philip will be hosting a BBQ on Tuesday 25th July at the Cathedral with all our Seminarians for those aged 16+ to find out more about vocations in the Diocese. If you are interested, please take an invite from the back of Church.
