This Sunday 19th Nov is the Thirty Third Sunday of the Year: Scott Hahn reflects: The day of the Lord is coming; Paul warns in today's Epistle. What matters is not the time or the season, but what the Lord finds us doing with the new life, the graces He has given to us. This is at the heart of Jesus' parable in today's Gospel. Jesus is the Master. Having died, risen, and ascended into heaven, He appears to have gone away for a long time. By our Baptism, He has entrusted to each of us a portion of His "possessions," a share in His divine life (see 2 Peter 1:4). He has given us talents and responsibilities, according to the measure of our faith (see Romans 12:3, 8).

NOVEMBER—MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE: -A month of remembrance and prayer for those who have died and gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Please take the opportunity to write the names of your deceased relatives and friends on the list with your offering and place in the special envelopes provided. Mass will be offered for the happy repose of their souls. We will keep the names before the Altar and pray for them.
